

THE PADUCAH DAILY SUN.

VOLUME 1—NUMBER 237

PADUCAH, KENTUCKY, MONDAY, JUNE 14, 1897.

TEN CENTS A WEEK

TO ANNEX HAWAII.

The Treaty Goes to the Senate on Wednesday.

EARTHQUAKES DEVASTATE INDIA.

Fight With a Mob Near Big Stone Gap.

KENTUCKY FLEET COUNTER OPENS TUESDAY.

Washington, June 14.—The treaty by which the United States will annex the Hawaiian Islands has been concluded and will be sent to the Senate on Wednesday. All the territory known as the crown lands is ceded to the United States and will probably be made use of to provide for the maintenance of the deposed queen and the Princess Kaiulani.

GREAT EXPECTATIONS

Are Indulged by Kentucky Aspirants for Office.

Washington, June 14.—The Kentucky contingent of office seekers are indulging in great expectations for the early days after the President's return from Nashville. It is believed some of the more important appointments will be disposed of by the President.

TWO MEN KILLED.

The French-Eversole Vendetta Comes to the Front.

Middlesboro, June 13.—Near Big Stone Gap a mob attacked a constable and posse and one of the posse shot and killed Frank Polly, French-Eversole leader. Before his death Polly succeeded in cutting the life out of Constable Bollenbacher and shooting Frank Rigs. More bloodshed is feared, as the county is greatly excited.

EARTHQUAKES.

Great Damage Wrought by Them in India.

Calcutta, June 14.—The damage and loss of life caused by recent earthquakes throughout this section has been immense. As the news is received from the interior the story of the horror becomes more and more appalling. Whole villages have been destroyed, buildings wrecked in many other places and the loss of life will undoubtedly amount to several hundred.

MURDERERS CAUGHT.

Tom Jackson and Wm. Johnson in Jail at Memphis.

They are the Supposed Murderers of Will Posey.

Two colored roustabouts giving the names Tom Jackson and William Johnson are under arrest at Memphis on a charge of killing Will Posey here Saturday night a week ago in the cooper shop near First and Washington streets.

Posey and Grant Stevenson, both of who had been roustabouts on the John K. Speed, engaged in an altercation over a pair of shoes and Posey was stabbed, dying the following day in the city hospital. He said before he died that there were two of the assassins. Both escaped and a few days ago Marshal Collins received a letter notifying him that both of the men were again on the Speed, having caught her at Vicksburg, Miss., as she was en route up the river.

The two men were pointed out to officers at Memphis night before last by the mate on the Speed when they reached there, and arrested. They agreed to return to Paducah without a requisition, claiming they were not the ones wanted, and Officer Fayette Jones was sent down after them at 12:30 yesterday afternoon. They refused to come when he reached there and said they were not wanted here, but were wanted at Cairo for murder.

Officer Jones returned at 2:45 this afternoon and reports that the men are being held at Memphis. They just agreed to come to Paducah without a requisition, but afterwards refused, but consented to be taken to Cairo. They admit to killing a negro about the same time on the levee there, and a killing did occur there about the same time Posey's murder occurred here. They answer the description of the men wanted here, however, and may have committed both deeds. There is some mystery about the matter, but the Speed will be here tonight, and the mate can no doubt clear the mystery, as he is the one who wrote Marshal Collins, and knows all about the men.

COURT AT BENTON.

Judge Bishop and Attorney W. F. Bradshaw Leave for Marshall.

Judge Bishop and Commonwealth's Attorney Bradshaw left this morning for Benton to open circuit court. Today and tomorrow will be consumed in impugning the grand and petit juries and it will likely be several days before the Noah Franklin case is taken up.

Sudhoff and Stanton was the battery, and the score was 6 to 4. Fans were very grateful to hear the news, and think now her luck has changed, and she will go right up.

Dowling will probably pitch again today. It is reported today that the Nashville franchise has been bought by Henderson.

Nashville beat Evansville yesterday by a score of 5 to 4, and Washington beat Cairo by a score of 11 to 9.

An Amateur Game.

Yesterday afternoon six innings of a game between the Ravens, or Reserves, of Paducah, and the Millers, of Metropolis, were played at the Rowlanddown park, in the presence of a good crowd. The score stood 28 to 27 in favor of the Metropolis club, when John Robertson, short stop and pitcher for the Paducah club, was overcome by the heat, and in the excitement the game broke up.

A FREE MAN.

He No Longer Has a Body-guard.

It is Said Will Return to Live With His Wife.

Mr. J. H. Willis, who has had charge of Oliver Allard as guard since conservators were appointed for him at Metropolis several months since, turned him over to the court Saturday and he was made a free man again, during his good behavior. He has quit drinking entirely and visited his wife yesterday, and it is said they will be reconciled and again live together. Good feeling has been fully restored, and it now looks like Allard, whose future was so gloomy only a few months ago, will soon be on top again. He has just returned from Creel Springs.

MIRACULOUS CURE

Mrs. Shelton Walks After Two Years.

HEALED BY A BOY.

Charles Brown, the Boy Faith Curist, Commands Her to Walk.

SAYS SHE BELIEVES SHE IS CURED.

People of West Jackson street marvel at an alleged cure that was effected in the locality Saturday afternoon by Charles Brown, the boy faith curist from Marion, who has been here with his father, W. M. Brown, for a few weeks past.

Mrs. Shelton, a well known widow of Eighth and Jackson streets, had been bed-ridden for two years until Saturday, and her right hand was withered and paralyzed to such an extent that she lost use entirely of it. Saturday the boy preacher visited her and commanded her to arise and walk.

After being assisted she did so and for the first time in two years is able to leave her bed and move about. She stated to a Six representative this morning that she believed she was practically cured. As to her being benighted, there is no doubt of it, as today she was able to use her hitherto useless hand, and wrote a letter for the first time since her affliction.

There is no little excitement in the vicinity, and this afternoon other experiments will be essayed through the alleged divine influence of the boy, who is only fourteen years old, and has attracted considerable attention in the state.

A WOULD-BE ASSASSIN

Attempts to Take the Life of the President of France.

Paris, June 14.—An attempt was made yesterday to assassinate Felix Faure, President of the French republic, while he was en route to Long Champs to witness the Grand Prix.

While M. Faure's carriage was passing a thick net La Cascade restaurant, in the Bois de Boulogne, a bomb, which subsequently proved to be a piece of tubing about six inches long and two inches in diameter, with a thickness of half an inch, charged with powder and swan shot, exploded.

No one was injured by the explosion. A man in the crowd, suspected as the prime mover, was arrested. He gave his name as Gallet and made only the briefest replies to questions put to him by the police.

Gallet said he had no occupation, but resided at Levallois-Perret. The police are making a thorough search of his lodgings. He is believed to be insane, for he shouted as the carriage passed along so loudly as to attract general attention in the crowd. The police have also made another arrest, in this case a youth, but it is thought probable that the actual culprit escaped.

THE YELLOW SCOURGE.

Makes Its Appearance at an Atlantic and Pacific Port.

New York, June 13.—Otto Wernerson, one of the passengers of the steamer Advance, was transferred to the Swinburne Island Hospital last night suffering from yellow fever. Wernerson was one of the survivors of the British ship Buckhurst, which took fire and was abandoned in mid-ocean, while on the voyage from Newcastle, N. S. W., for Panama. Wernerson was taken sick at sea two or three days before the steamer arrived at this port. He was removed with the rest of the second cabin passengers to Hoffman island for observation. The patient showed no marked symptoms of the fever until yesterday. Today he grew rapidly worse, and at 8 p. m. died.

There are forty-eight passengers at Hoffman island. They will be detained there the usual five days. San Francisco, June 13.—The City of Para arrived today from Panama flying the yellow flag, and was immediately ordered into quarantine. When one day out from Panama one of the passengers, Mrs. Mitchell, died of yellow fever, and a few days later Capt. Metonsen also died. About twenty passengers came into port, none having symptoms of the disease.

DISORDERLY HOUSE

Charged Against a Well Known Saloon Keeper.

A BAD JARKEY WARRANTED

Capt. Newt Roberts' Trial Set for This Afternoon.

DULL IN POLICE CIRCLES.

Phil Stephen, the well known saloon keeper whose establishment is on Washington street near Ninth, was warranted this morning by Judge Sanders for keeping a disorderly house, where vices of various kinds are alleged to exist and flourish. Officer William Johnson furnished the information on which the warrant was drawn, and the trial will probably take place tomorrow.

Zeno Williams, colored, was warranted this morning by Judge Sanders for disorderly conduct, consisting of throwing stones at "Doctor" Johnson, a well known old colored man of the First ward, who has frequently complained of being annoyed in this way.

The case against Robert Hays, the dairyman's son, charged with carrying concealed a pistol, who was arrested at the baseball park Sunday, a week ago, will come up before Justice Winchester tomorrow.

County Judge Tully will try Thompson and Allison Trice, the boys who stole the keg of beer, this afternoon or tomorrow morning.

The case against Capt. Newt Roberts, charged with a breach of the peace, is set for 3:30 o'clock this afternoon before Justice Winchester. He is charged with engaging in a difficulty with Mr. Tom Everts Saturday night a week ago, and is now out. The case against Mr. Everts will likely come up before Justice Little tomorrow sometime.

There was nothing of interest in the circuit clerk's office today. No suits have been filed for sometime and it is over three months until court.

BOLD THIEVES.

Colored Boys Steal a Keg of Beer.

ADMIT IT IN COURT.

Dee Halsey and Allison Trice Held Over for the Offense.

ONE BOY WAS RELEASED.

Dee Halsey, alias Thomas, Allison Trice and Richard LeRoy, three colored boys, were arraigned in Judge Sanders' court this morning on a charge of stealing a keg of beer from Mr. George Oehlschlaeger's wagon near Ninth and Trimble Saturday night.

The first two pleaded guilty, but LeRoy said he had nothing to do with the theft, and evidence was heard on the subject. Halsey was first questioned. He said he saw the keg on the wagon, which was standing in the alley, and lifting it off the wagon he carried it to the nearest fence and rolled it over.

LeRoy started for a spigot and hatchet he says, but there was no proof of this, and Judge Sanders dismissed the warrant against LeRoy. Trice and Halsey, however, were held over. The latter is one of the most notorious of the younger criminals, and Judge Sanders has often predicted that he will be hung or sent to the penitentiary before he is twenty-one.

ACCIDENTS.

A Few Slight Ones Reported To-Day.

Two Young Men Injured by Bicycle Falls Yesterday.

Mr. Earl Walters, clerk at El Gubrie's, was thrown from his bicycle out on the Cairo road yesterday and had his right limb painfully lacerated, necessitating a stick in navigation.

Clyde Cooper, the carpenter, is suffering from a bad eye. While repairing an iron fence a day or two ago a piece of steel struck him in the right eye and lodged there.

Dr. B. T. Frank, while driving near Sixth and Broadway Saturday night about 8 o'clock, had a narrow escape from death. His horse shied at the Jackson street car and sheered in such a way as to result in a collision with the car. The vehicle was partially demolished and the doctor was violently thrown out and rendered unconscious. He was carried into the Boyd-White infirmary, but no bones were broken, and he was found to be only painfully bruised.

Master Ollie Allard, son of Mrs. Fannie Allard, of North Fifth street, received a hard fall from a bicycle yesterday and sustained a painful injury of the hip.

Len Dale, the 17-year-old son of Mr. Bud Dale, was painfully injured in Massac creek yesterday afternoon while in bathing. In the creek were the fragments of several glass jars, exploded by lime when a search was recently being made for a boy who was drowned. The young man was severely cut near the knee by the glass.

Marshal Collins is today working on another horse stealing case, and expects before many hours have elapsed to have another horse thief in port.

THIRD DEATH.

Another of a Poverty Stricken Family Gone.

Jimmie Pardee Dies of Measles—Two Others Died Last Week.

Jimmie Pardee, aged 16, died at 1125 south Third street last night of measles. This is the third death to occur in the family, which is a deplorably poverty stricken, within one week. A few days ago two of the children, Ellen Pardee and Dolph Blunk, died of the same malady at the same time, on beds of squalor, and were buried in Potter's field in the same grave. Last night the third succumbed. The remains were buried in the county graveyard last afternoon.

The family is being taken care of by charitable neighbors, and is in very destitute circumstances. The people came down the river on a snappy boat some time since.

WRITTEN AT RANDOM.

Capt. Ben Howard, the jolly skipper of the Dick Fowler, was seated on the deck a day or two since when the boat passed Belgrade Landing, a small way landing so insignificant that boats seldom land there, although they pass by the score. It is just this side of Metropolis.

"You see that house," said the captain, pointing to a small structure plainly visible through the rapidly receding trees. "Well, I was born and raised there," he continued, "and forty-nine years ago ran away from home."

The crowd evinced enough interest to elicit the bit of history from the accommodating captain, who probably did not know a newspaper man was in the crowd.

"I was a pretty big boy then, about 15 years old and worked hard on the farm. One day I got mad at my father, and scheming around until nearly dark, I volunteered to go and feed some stock, and that was the last time any of them saw me for nine years. I had planned to run away from home, and doing so that night I made my way to the nearest landing, and hailed the first steamboat. I shipped on the 'Countess' as deck cleaner and general utility boy, and they dubbed me 'Rube.' I was paid $12 a month at first, but after several months the Captain went to the clerk one day and asked, 'How much are you paying Rube?'

"Twelve dollars," was the reply. "Well, give him ten hereafter," and then he got thereafter, but "Rube" didn't complain.

"About a year after the last transaction, when pay day rolled around one month the captain asked, 'How much are you paying 'Rube' now?'

"Ten dollars," was the answer. "Well, give him eighteen hereafter," he said as good as any of them, the captain said, and "Rube" experienced his first raise of salary. He did not go back home for nine years. He has stuck to the river all these years, has the popular Capt. Ben, and now has the reputation of being the sprightliest, most active, captain on the Ohio, despite his years, and is on the roof of one of the fastest steamers.

Speaking of those who are always abusing the street roller, for political purposes or through ignorance, the council might retort to the disgruntled soreheads as the "mountain member" of the legislature did to his colleagues at Frankfort before the war.

Commonwealth's Attorney W. F. Bradshaw was sitting in front of his office on legal row Saturday when he told the story:

"He was a gruff, ignorant sort of fellow," began the lawyer, "and was one of the mountain members of the legislature before the war. He went down to Frankfort to attend the session for the first time, having just been elected. He remained throughout the session, and not once did he speak. He simply sat there, listened quietly to the proceedings, and chewed tobacco. If he wanted a drink he went out and got it. On the last day of the term, he was sitting silently by, engaged in his usual occupation of chewing long green, when a smile stole over his countenance, and a thought seeming to strike him amidships, he arose to address the assembly for the first time. He said in a rather disgusted, contemptuous tone, 'I don't know what you fellows think you me, but whatever it air, by G—d, I think a d—d sight less of ye!'

It is something remarkable, and not at all a credit to the intelligence and progressive spirit of the citizens of Paducah, or more properly some of them, to hear the sewerage question discussed. It is an absolute fact that a great many citizens are opposed to any sewerage system at any time and any price. They are simply against sewerage, and claim that the city doesn't need it. In most instances these people are really sincere, and to hear them talk one would be led to believe that they were not used to living in a civilized community, but in some isolated rural spot where sewerage is unheard of.

small boy daily subjects his father to the danger of expending more or less money for a coffin and several carriages, there is considerable complaint of men and boys going into the river in a nude condition in broad daylight and inside the city limits. There is a law against it, but the law is persistently disregarded by a great many boys and men who have been told countless times that such conduct is forbidden by law.

It is almost impossible for a police force, so limited as the one in Paducah, to enforce a law that embraces so many different places, and the people living in the vicinity of such places, and annoyed by the reprehensible conduct, should report names to the police, and a few fines would soon suffice to destroy the practice.

Speaking of telegraph operators, it is astonishing how many active and inactive manipulators of the key and sander there are in Paducah. A railroad man was counting them up the other day, and states that nearly all the prominent railroad officials among others are Agents Stovall, R. C. Watkins, A. T. Sablin, of the Illinois Central, Agent Frank Teachtout, C. R. Dorris, and Supt. Hills, of the N. C. & St. L., and in addition several of the conductors. Among the Illinois Central conductors who were formerly operators are H. J. Craft, at one time chief dispatcher here, Conductor Dawes and Conductor Will Thompson. There are about eleven operators in regular employment here, including five train dispatchers, four office operators, and one stock exchange man and an operator in Agent Teachtout's office. In addition there are at least a dozen "hams," "plugs," and retired operators who have found more pleasant and remunerative employment in Paducah, or else have picked it up as a pastime and never used it at all.

NOTES.
Business on the wharf was of very little force this morning, the arrivals and departures numbered only three boats and consequently things were exceedingly quiet in that vicinity.

The two packets, Dick and Joe Fowler, after the short retirement of Sunday, were out on time this morning, the former for Cairo, and the latter for Evansville.

The Ashland City left this morning for Danville. She was doing very little business.

The City of Clarksville brought down an excursion yesterday from Golconda. She had a nice crowd and returned in the afternoon.

The City of Chattanooga and Geo. H. Cowling had colored excursions to the Cumberland river yesterday.

The H. W. Buttrif, owing to lying over at Nashville until late Saturday night, was somewhat late in arriving out of the Cumberland this morning. She had not put in her appearance at a very late hour but is expected to be in and out again for Clarksville before dark tonight.

The towboat R. A. Speed goes up the Cumberland river today after a tow of ties.

BENTON, KY.
To the Editor of the SUN:
News is scarce in and around our little town.

J. M. Johnston, Clint Strow, Rollen Walker, Henry Wilson, Henry Hyatt and Jim Jones, of Benton, and Joe Kemp, of near here, went to Clear Pond Saturday, to enjoy themselves a couple of days fishing and hunting.

Mr. Taylor, candidate for commonwealth's attorney for this district, was out here mixing with the voters this week. I think Mr. Taylor is qualified to attend the duties of the office to which he aspires; besides he strictly for the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. He is on the right track in this view of a large majority of the voters of this county and will be a sure winner at the November election so far as they are concerned.

I don't think the Jack will bray any more. I think he calked himself the first round; and that little hatch-faced dude that's trying to help the Jack out of his troubles by putting his name in this worthless little sheet that's published here, had better let up or I will give his full name and tell what I know about mules and he will need the Jack to help him out of his little troubles. Jack and Dude think it's just simply awful that I voted for McKinley and then write anything about a gold bug Democratic convention and let it be published in a Republican paper. These gold bugs put those suckers up to say what they did. As some of them are candidates they didn't want to say anything themselves, and they haven't got any use at all for a Republican or a Republican paper.

They have no use for any but a Democratic paper and it has got to be all right and a yard wide. For instance, they want something on the order of the Louisville Post. They are great friends of the Post, but since come to think didn't the Post go square back on the Chicago platform, jump on the old bolters, Palmer and Buckner, and work for McKinley like a hero? I think it did.

What "voter" said about the primary in the Hardin Star was a plenty, but, "voter," if they jump on you, and you need any help, let me know and I will come to your aid for I have a good roast to store for them.

COMMENCEMENT TO-NIGHT.

Morton's Opera House to Hold a Brilliant Assemblage.

Seventeen Graduates to Receive Their Diplomas Before the Footlights.

The annual commencement of the Paducah high school will take place tonight at Morton's opera house, when the ceremony will fall on the school life of fifteen young ladies and two young men graduates. While some will no doubt experience a pang of regret at leaving their teachers and schoolmates, perhaps this regret will be outweighed by the feeling of satisfaction that always follows the completion of an often unpleasant task.

Commencement may not mean what it used to mean to the graduate, but it is a pretty custom, and one that should never be allowed to decline.

Tonight the sweet girl graduates, just as she has done of old, will stand before an audience of admiring friends, attired in immaculate white, an emblem of her own spotless madness, and receive her diploma, which will be laid away, neatly tied with its blue ribbon, perhaps so as to be forgotten in the dull career of real life. The class this year is numerically large, and is composed of bright, talented young people, who are well equipped to battle for success in life. The names of the graduates are:

Misses Jessie Mercedes Foltz, Arcand Pearl Sanders, Zo: A. Hannin, Ruby Marie Piles, Emma Marion Duval, Margaret C. J. Donnigan, Ber-

Supply and Demand.

High prices increase the production of any article and lessens the consumption; hence low prices decrease the production and increase the consumption.

Many manufacturers expected better times and bigger sales and made too much stuff for the spring and summer trade of 1897. The manufacturer's way out of such a dilemma is to cut the price to induce somebody to use up the stuff.
We are among the few cash buyers who have bought up these goods to sell to our customers at half prices. Out of self defense many merchants will claim to own goods at our low prices, but the only safe way is to come here and see.

Laws are here for 2c and 3c and 4-4-4c, that were double.

Beautiful wash goods we have seen elsewhere for 10c, are now here for 5c a yard.

Handsome ones that were 20c are here for 10c.

Taffeta mulls that were 25c early are now here for 12 1/2-2c.

Leather belts, all colors, that were 50c, now here for 25c.

Ladies' vests that were 5c, now
3c. Very handsome vests are here for 7 and 8c. Bleached table linens that were 40c now here for 25c.

Other table linens very low. Hand towels at 1, 9 and 12 1/2-2c; very special. Dotted swisses and dotted dimities, manufacturer's seconds that you can hardly tell from the first, worth 20c, for 10c a yard.

Choice apron check ginghams at 3 1/2, 4 and 7-7-2c a yard.

18c unbleached 10-4 sheeting for 12 1/2-2c yard. Ready made bleached sheets for 35c to 45c, worth double.

Soft finished yard wide bleached domestic at 4, 4 1/2, 5, 6 1/2, 7 and 7 1/2-2c a yard. Ladies' fast black hose that were 25c, now 12 1/2-2c.

The world's unequaled seamless season's 10c sock, now four pairs for 25c.

Narrow Escape of a Boy Near Mayfield--Other Railroad News.

Supt. W. J. Harahan and family, arrived at noon in a private car from Nashville, where they visited the exposition. They came here, however, direct from Dawson, and will probably return home tomorrow.

Saturday as the passenger train which left here at 12:20 p. m. neared Dawson, the form of a boy was seen lying at the side of the track the train stopped and the crew went back to render necessary assistance, supposing that the boy had been struck and killed. It developed, however, that his name was Collier, and he had an epileptic fit on the track just before the train reached him, and was pulled off just in the nick of time by a companion.

This morning a force of workmen began tearing off the roof of the Broadway freight office, preparatory to putting on a new one. A large ventilator and sky light will be placed over the dispatchers' room.

SEE! BUT IT'S HOT!

The Thermometer Crawls Up to 100 Degrees.

It Seldom Gets Hotter This Side of Hades.

The sweltering heat of the past three days has been almost unbearable, and yesterday and today the mercury has hovered uncomfortably near 100 degrees.

At noon yesterday the thermometer at Ochsenschlaeger & Walker's and Nagel's registered 98 degrees, while the one at Wallerstein's was at the 100 mark. Today there has been little change, and there is a perceptible boom in the soda water trade and a great increase in street car traffic.

About the only way to keep cool today was by sitting under electric fans or boarding a rapidly moving street car.

Rain is predicted, however, and a storm following such heat would not be a great surprise.

Three Wills Filed For Probate
To-Day.

Judge Tully held county court today, but nothing of interest transpired. Three wills were admitted to probate. Mrs. Mary J. Ballance

the Bleich property, to her daughter, Mrs. Rosetta Earnhardt.

F. M. Engler leaves his estate to his wife, Mary Ellen, and she is appointed executrix.
